

WHAT IS OUR STORY?

The Club brings families together and our Club is a 2nd home to over 1,500 members. We've got a strong foundation and continue to modernize our service offerings to ensure multi-generational enjoyment throughout 275 acres of breathtaking, panoramic scenery. Although the Club began as a hunting club in 1885, over the years, amenities such as dining, golf, tennis, pickleball, trap and skeet and fitness were added to enrich member experience. Club members have a history of excellence in business, athletics, and altruistic pursuits.

YOUR CAREER AT THE CLUB

We strive to meet the needs of every member, whatever their interest may be. In doing so, we are looking for motivated individuals to join the Club's highly talented team to continue to offer a variety of activities, social events, dining opportunities and much more for all members, young and old. The London Hunt and Country Club prides itself on creating not only an exceptional membership experience but a memorable work environment as well.

ROLE OVERVIEW

The London Hunt and Country Club is currently seeking a highly motivated Kitchen Manager with a proven track record in the private club, or similar industry.
